

African American History in Local Librarys in Macomb County Mi.

1. Roseville Public Library.
  - A. Pictures of First Baptist Church Chiors, before 1948.
  - B. Picture of Good Hope Baptist Church Valentine Day Party, before 1948.
  - C. Map of Macomb Gardens, from 1917, why was it issued?
  - D. DVD of African American Macomb County Churchs.
  - E. List of African American Macomb County Churchs.
  - F. Pictures of African Americans from Macomb Gardens community and our re-unions to 2009 (tent june 2010).
2. Clinton Township Public Library.
  - A. DVD of African American Macomb county Churchs
  - B. DVD of the Quinn Road History and Quinn Road Re-Union 2001.
  - C. List of African American Churchs in Macomb County.
3. Mount Clemens Public Library.
  - A. DVD of African American Macomb county Churchs
  - B. DVD of the Quinn Road History and Quinn Road Re-Union 2001.
  - C. List of African American Churchs in Macomb County.
  - D. Pictures of NAACP, NCNW, and the Interfaith Center for Racial Justice people, In Digital Archive under local history Collection.
  - E. Pictures of people in the NAACP, NCNW, and The Interfaith council for Racial Justice.
4. New Haven Public Library.
  - A. DVD of African American Churchs in Macomb County.
  - B. List of African American Churchs in Macomb County.
5. Romeo Public Library.
  - A. History of Second Baptist Church from the news paper, as the oldest African American Church in Macomb County.
  - B. DVD of African American Churchs in Macomb County (tent Oct 30 2009)
  - C. List of African American Churchs in Macomb County. (tent Oct 30 2009)

Compiled by John M. Emerson Sr.
586-463-9583
e-mail john-emerson@sbcglobal.net